

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription
2/26/86

1

[redacted] Yonkers, New York, telephone [redacted] was interviewed in her place of residence. She was informed of the official identities of the interviewing investigators and the nature of the interview. Thereafter, [redacted] furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

She had been employed as an operator by [redacted] for approximately [redacted] years. At present, she is employed on the [redacted] shift as an information operator.

b6
b7C

Approximately two weeks prior to the interview, she had received a call while on duty at [redacted] at approximately [redacted] from an unidentified male caller. The unidentified male caller asked her for the telephone number of a [redacted] MYKOLA LEBED. She thought it was nothing more than a coincidence, and as operators normally do not ask for any additional information regarding the requestee, she brought the information forward from record and furnished the telephone number to the caller.

b6
b7C

During her hours of working on the [redacted] shift, she normally departed for work at approximately [redacted] to [redacted]. She had noticed no unusual activities nor any strangers [redacted] during the recent time frame. Additionally, she was unaware of the incident that had occurred regarding a large number of individuals having arrived at that location with cameras and signs allegedly protesting the presence of "a Nazi war criminal" that the news media had claimed LEBED to be.

b6
b7C

For background, [redacted] she was not particularly close to either LEBED, his wife, [redacted]

b6
b7C

100A-18293-856 C
-90C
①

SEARCHED	INDEXED
SERIALIZED	FILED
MAR 11 1986
FBI - NEW YORK

Interviewed on 2/18/86 at Yonkers, New York

File # NY 100A-182938

By Detective [redacted] and
SA [redacted] /DWJ/lkh

Date Dictated 2/24/86

b6
b7C

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.